

GENNAIO

FEBBRAIO

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a spring scene. In the center is a large, rounded green tree with a brown trunk, adorned with several pink and purple flowers. The background is a light green gradient. The top and sides of the image are framed by a decorative border of brown branches with pink blossoms and small yellow flowers. Three bees are depicted: one on the left, one near the top center, and one on the right side of the tree. Numerous small, colorful flowers (pink, yellow, purple, white) are scattered across the green field at the bottom. The word 'MARZO' is prominently displayed in the upper center.
